You may feel that math is hard and boring. Is it possible that you've been looking at math in the wrong way? With International Day of Math coming on March 14, Teens interviewed Li Xing, a math professor (教授) at Ning Xia University. We asked if math can be beautiful and fun. Here's what he said.

Numbers are beautiful

Many people today want to have beautiful looks. But there is math hidden in beautiful human bodies. Measure (测量) the length from your head to your belly button (肚脐) and from your belly button to your feet. The ratio (比例) of these two numbers is always around 0.618. This is the golden ratio, which can be seen everywhere, like in nature, music and paintings.

In Chinese poems, we can also see the beauty of numbers, which reminds us of a line, “▲”—the numbers show how fast Li Bai traveled and how happy he felt. Numbers give us freedom to imagine.

Curves are beautiful

Sine curves (正弦切线) are beautiful. They go towards the two opposite directions on and on without ever ending. When you look at them, you may feel like standing by the sea and watching the waves slowly moving. The tangent curve (正切曲线) is like a waterfall. That’s really “dashing down three thousand feet from on high (飞流直下三千尺)”. If you do a math problem and get that curve, you’ll feel wonderful.

Formulas (公式) are beautiful

What’s more, you may not know Euler’s Formulas: $e^{i\pi} + 1 = 0$. It’s beautiful, too. The number “e” is an irrational number (无理数), whose digits (位数) go on and on and never stop. “ π ” is also such an irrational number. However, when these two numbers come together, things become different. How amazing! Just as the Chinese-American mathematician Chern Shiing-shen said, “Math is fun!”

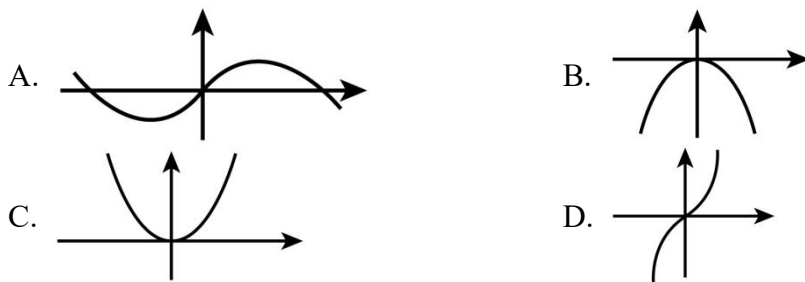

1. If the ratio of a thing is around 0.618, _____.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| A. it has a golden color | B. it will look like a human body |
| C. it is as long as a person’s leg | D. it can bring us a sense of beauty |

2. Which line can best fill in _____?

- | | |
|------------|------------|
| A. 碧玉妆成一树高 | B. 千里家书动隔秋 |
| C. 轻舟已过万重山 | D. 百万雄师过大江 |

3. What does a sine curve look like?

4. We can infer from the passage that _____.

- A. Li Xing thinks math is difficult and boring
- B. we can often see the golden ratio in the drawings
- C. then tangent curve is always three thousand feet high
- D. $e^{i\pi}$ isn’t an irrational number

5. What is the passage mainly about?

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| A. Math is hard and important. | B. The life of a math professor. |
| C. Math is beautiful and interesting. | D. The International Day of Math. |

B

Take a pen and write the number 6174 on a piece of paper. It looks just like any other number, doesn't it? But what if I told you that it was a magic number?

Do you think this is a joke? Well, let's see the magic with a quick experiment (实验).

Start with a four-digit (四位) number — make sure that at least two of the digits are different, and if three digits are the same, the other digit can't be different by 1, for example, 1112 and 6566 are not the suitable numbers. You may use, for example, 1113.

Now take 7173 as the example. Put the digits in the new order to make the smallest possible number: 1377. Then, the largest number: 7731.

Let's subtract the smaller number from the larger number: $7731 - 1377 = 6354$.

Go back to the second step and repeat the process:

$$6543 - 3456 = 3087 \blacktriangleright 8730 - 0378 = 8352 \blacktriangleright 8532 - 2358 = 6174$$

Ta-da! There you have it: 6174!

You can repeat this experiment with another number. What do you end up with? Is it 6174?

This number is known as Kaprekar's constant. It is named after the Indian mathematician Dattatreya Ramchandra Kaprekar. He discovered the magic behind this number in 1949 after performing the above process.

Kaprekar had always enjoyed playing with numbers. But when he showed the magic of 6174 at an international mathematics meeting, other mathematicians didn't roll out the red carpet. They thought it was a useless discovery and made fun of him. Yet to this day, no scientist can fully explain why this magic works.

Would you like to dive deeper? Try different numbers and see how many steps you need to get to 6174. Which number requires the most steps? How about the least?

1. Which of the following is suitable for the experiment?

- A. 1111. B. 1112. C. 1113. D. 6566.

2. If the number for the experiment is 2025, which of the following is the next step?

- A. 5220-0225 B. 5220-2520 C. 2025-0252 D. 2025-0225

3. What does the underlined part "roll out the red carpet" probably mean?

- A. Show their opinions. B. Talk loudly.

- C. Express their welcome. D. Understand clearly.
4. What does the writer think of this experiment?
- A. It's useless. B. It's worth studying.
- C. It's explainable. D. It's hard to carry out.
5. What's the best title of the text?
- A. A Magic Number B. A Math Competition
- C. A Great Scientist D. An International Discovery

They say the subject takes up 2 of their time. They have to read many passages, 3 new words in the dictionary and do lots of exercises. Even though they work hard, they still cannot get good grades on tests. “Why?” they ask. “How can I enjoy success?” The story of Chinese astronaut Deng Qingming might help answer their questions.

Deng was chosen as 4 astronaut trainee (实习生) in 1998. That was long ago—you readers hadn't even been born yet. From then on, he has spent almost all of his time training hard to become an astronaut. Over the years, Deng has seen his fellow trainees go into space one after 5. He, however, was always a backup (后备人员). Sometimes he even cried. Deng still tries his 6 for the dream. Although he is now in his 7, he keeps training hard. “I must be ready whenever

十、阅读理解

A

You may feel that math is hard and boring. Is it possible that you've been looking at math in the wrong way? With International Day of Math coming on March 14, Teens interviewed Li Xing, a math professor (教授) at Ning Xia University. We asked if math can be beautiful and fun. Here's what he said.

Numbers are beautiful

Many people today want to have beautiful looks. But there is math hidden in beautiful human bodies. Measure (测量) the length from your head to your belly button (肚脐) and from your belly button to your feet. The ratio (比例) of these two numbers is always around 0.618. This is the golden ratio, which can be seen everywhere, like in nature, music and paintings.

In Chinese poems, we can also see the beauty of numbers, which reminds us of a line, “▲”—the numbers show how fast Li Bai traveled and how happy he felt. Numbers give us freedom to imagine.

Curves are beautiful

Sine curves (正弦切线) are beautiful. They go towards the two opposite directions on and on without ever ending. When you look at them, you may feel like standing by the sea and watching the waves slowly moving. The tangent curve (正切曲线) is like a waterfall. That's really “dashing down three thousand feet from on high (飞流直下三千尺)”. If you do a math problem and get that curve, you'll feel wonderful.

Formulas (公式) are beautiful

What's more, you may not know Euler's Formulas: $e^{i\pi} + 1 = 0$. It's beautiful, too. The number "e" is an irrational number (无理数), whose digits (位数) go on and on and never stop. " π " is also such an irrational number. However, when these two numbers come together, things become different. How amazing! Just as the Chinese-American mathematician Chern Shiing-shen said, "Math is fun!"

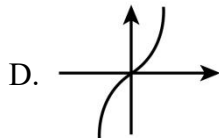

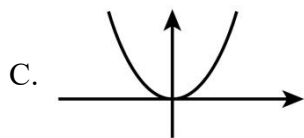

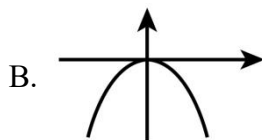

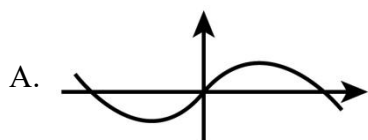

1. If the ratio of a thing is around 0.618, _____.

- A. it has a golden color B. it will look like a human body
- C. it is as long as a person's leg D. it can bring us a sense of beauty

2. Which line can best fill in _____?

- A. 碧玉妆成一树高
B. 千里家书动隔秋
C. 轻舟已过万重山
D. 百万雄师过大江

3. What does a sine curve look like?

4. We can infer from the passage that _____.

- A. Li Xing thinks math is difficult and boring
- B. we can often see the golden ratio in the drawings
- C. then tangent curve is always three thousand feet high
- D. $e^{i\pi}$ isn't an irrational number

5. What is the passage mainly about?

- A. Math is hard and important. B. The life of a math professor.
- C. Math is beautiful and interesting. D. The International Day of Math.

【答案】 1. D 2. C 3. A 4. D 5. C

【解析】 本文主要通过黄金比例、诗歌中的数字、曲线和公式等方面展示了数学的美。

1. 细节理解题。根据“Measure the length from your head to your belly button and from your belly button to your feet. The ratio of these two numbers is always around 0.618. This is the golden ratio, which can be seen everywhere, like in nature, music and paintings.”可知，物体的比例约为 0.618，它可以给我们带来美感。故选 D。

2. 细节理解题。根据“the numbers show how fast Li Bai traveled and how happy he felt.”可知，这些数字展示了李白旅行的速度和感受到的快乐。因此，李白的诗句“轻舟已过万重山”最能体现旅行的速

度和快乐。故选 C。

3. 推理判断题。根据“Sine curves are beautiful. They go towards the two opposite directions on and on without ever ending. When you look at them, you may feel like standing by the sea and watching the waves slowly moving.”可知，正弦曲线朝着两个相反的方向不断前进，永无止境。当你看着它们时，你可能会觉得自己站在海边，看着海浪慢慢移动。故选 A。

4. 推理判断题。根据最后一段“ $e^{(i\pi)} + 1 = 0$.”可推知， $e^{(i\pi)}$ 数值为-1，为具体的数值，而不是无理数。故选 D。

5. 主旨大意题。根据“Numbers are beautiful”和“Just as the Chinese-American mathematician Chern Shiing-shen said, ‘Math is fun!’”以及全文可知，这篇文章主要讲数学是美丽而有趣的。故选 C。

B

Take a pen and write the number 6174 on a piece of paper. It looks just like any other number, doesn't it? But what if I told you that it was a magic number?

Do you think this is a joke? Well, let's see the magic with a quick experiment (实验).

Start with a four-digit (四位) number — make sure that at least two of the digits are different, and if three digits are the same, the other digit can't be different by 1, for example, 1112 and 6566 are not the suitable numbers. You may use, for example, 1113.

Now take 7173 as the example. Put the digits in the new order to make the smallest possible number: 1377. Then, the largest number: 7731.

Let's subtract the smaller number from the larger number: $7731 - 1377 = 6354$.

Go back to the second step and repeat the process:

$6543 - 3456 = 3087$ ▶ $8730 - 0378 = 8352$ ▶ $8532 - 2358 = 6174$

Ta-da! There you have it: 6174!

You can repeat this experiment with another number. What do you end up with? Is it 6174?

This number is known as Kaprekar's constant. It is named after the Indian mathematician Dattatreya Ramchandra Kaprekar. He discovered the magic behind this number in 1949 after performing the above process.

Kaprekar had always enjoyed playing with numbers. But when he showed the magic of 6174 at an international mathematics meeting, other mathematicians didn't roll out the red carpet. They thought it was a useless discovery and made fun of him. Yet to this day, no scientist can fully explain why this magic works.

Would you like to dive deeper? Try different numbers and see how many steps you need to get to 6174. Which number requires the most steps? How about the least?

1. Which of the following is suitable for the experiment?

- A. 1111. B. 1112. C. 1113. D. 6566.

2. If the number for the experiment is 2025, which of the following is the next step?

- A. 5220-0225 B. 5220-2520 C. 2025-0252 D. 2025-0225

3. What does the underlined part “roll out the red carpet” probably mean?

- A. Show their opinions. B. Talk loudly.
C. Express their welcome. D. Understand clearly.

4. What does the writer think of this experiment?

- A. It's useless. B. It's worth studying.
C. It's explainable. D. It's hard to carry out.

5. What's the best title of the text?

- A. A Magic Number B. A Math Competition
C. A Great Scientist D. An International Discovery

【答案】1. C 2. A 3. C 4. B 5. A

【解析】本文主要介绍了数字 6174 是一个神奇的数字，通过对任意一个符合条件的四位数进行特定的运算步骤，最终都会得到 6174，这个数字被称为卡普雷卡尔常数，同时还讲述了其发现者卡普雷卡尔的相关故事。

1. 细节理解题。根据“... make sure that at least two of the digits are different, and if three digits are the same, the other digit can't be different by 1, for example, 1112 and 6566 are not the suitable numbers. You may use, for example, 1113.”可知，确保至少有两个数位上的数字不同，并且如果有三个数字相同，那么另一个数字与这三个相同数字的差值不能为 1，因此 1113 符合条件。故选 C。

2. 细节理解题。根据“Now take 7173 as the example. Put the digits in the new order to make the smallest possible number: 1377. Then, the largest number: 7731. Let's subtract the smaller number from the larger number: $7731 - 1377 = 6354$.”可知，对于数字 2025，要得到下一步，需先组成最小的数 0225，最大的数 5220，然后用较大数减去较小数，即 5220-0225。故选 A。

3. 词句猜测题。根据“They thought it was a useless discovery and made fun of him.”可知，其他数学家认为这是无用的发现并嘲笑他，并没有欢迎他的发现，由此可推测“roll out the red carpet”意思是表达欢迎。故选 C。

4. 推理判断题。根据最后一段“Would you like to dive deeper? Try different numbers and see how many steps you need to get to 6174. Which number requires the most steps? How about the least?”可知，作者鼓励读者深入研究这个实验，说明作者认为这个实验值得研究。故选 B。
5. 最佳标题题。通读全文可知，文章主要介绍了 6174 这个神奇的数字以及与之相关的实验和故事，选项 A“一个神奇的数字”最能概括文章主旨，是最佳标题。故选 A。
