In the eyes of many foreigners Chinese are the best hosts (主人) and the worst guests in the world. They're not really bad guests but because the guest-host relationship in China is much different than in some western countries it appears they are not nice guests. And western guests sometimes look rude (粗鲁的) in the eyes of Chinese guests.

In China guests are almost like gods. Whenever I enter a Chinese person's home there is always fruit on the table for me and someone is quick to bring me a cup of tea or water. In the west generally the guest is not a god. Acting according to the host's way of doing things is usual behavior for a guest.

My wife's mother a very kind elderly Chinese lady doesn't smoke. When I see some of her guests smoking in her house as a non-smoker I feel unhappy. Usually I want to stop them directly but I must realize that in China to be a good host she must not do that. In most North America homes if you are a guest and the hosts are not smokers you should not smoke in their house. At the very least you could ask "Is it OK if I smoke?" "But don't be surprised if they say "No you can't smoke. " In our culture if you smoke in their home you are a bad guest but if they don't allow you to smoke in their house they are not a rude guest.

Guests in China also have special habits. Some western people may not adapt to these habits very soon. Thankfully my wife is Chinese so whenever we visit a Chinese family she tells me to buy them a gift. However giving a gift to a host is not always necessary in my country. So if you invite international guests to your home don't be too surprised if they don't bring you a gift.

In China you probably won't need to change the guest-host relationship very much because you will probably only be the host and Chinese are naturally very good hosts. If western hosts invite you to their house try not to be too surprised if their style of treating you is not what you have expected.

1. Many foreigners think that Chinese hosts are the _____ in the world.
A. best B. worst C. most natural D. most difficult
2. When a western guest visits a Chinese family he often _____.
A. buys some fruit B. feels like a god C. wants some gifts D. takes a cup of tea
3. If the writer's guests want to smoke in his house what will he probably say?
A. It's OK if you smoke here. B. Let's smoke together.
C. Sorry you can't smoke here. D. Smoking is a bad habit.
4. What is the meaning of the underlined phrase “adapt to” in the passage?
A. think back to B. get used to C. look forward to D. keep close to
5. What is the main idea of this passage?
A. Foreigners should learn from Chinese. B. Hosts must do things in the guest's way.
C. Western hosts are always nice to guests. D. People should understand cultural difference。

2. C 第二个阶段是 Rejection(排斥) stage。定位到这里 It can be quite dangerous because you may develop unhealthy habits like smoking and drinking. 可知答案选 C

3. A 定位到第三阶段 Your sense of humour usually becomes stronger. 可知答案选 A

4. B 细节理解题。B 答案只与本国人交朋友。

In the eyes of many foreigners Chinese are the best hosts (主人) and the worst guests in the world. They're not really bad guests but because the guest-host relationship in China is much different than in some western countries it appears they are not nice guests. And western guests sometimes look rude (粗鲁的) in the eyes of Chinese guests.

In China guests are almost like gods. Whenever I enter a Chinese person's home there is always fruit on the table for me and someone is quick to bring me a cup of tea or water. In the west generally the guest is not a god. Acting according to the host's way of doing things is usual behavior for a guest.

My wife's mother a very kind elderly Chinese lady doesn't smoke. When I see some of her guests smoking in her house as a non-smoker I feel unhappy. Usually I want to stop them directly but I must realize that in China to be a good host she must not do that. In most North America homes if you are a guest and the hosts are not smokers you should not smoke in their house. At the very least you could ask "Is it OK if I smoke?" "But don't be surprised if they say "No you can't smoke. " In our culture if you smoke in their home you are a bad guest but if they don't allow you to smoke in their house they are not a rude guest.

Guests in China also have special habits. Some western people may not adapt to these habits very soon. Thankfully my wife is Chinese so whenever we visit a Chinese family she tells me to buy them a gift. However giving a gift to a host is not always necessary in my country. So if you invite international guests to your home don't be too surprised if they don't bring you a gift.

In China you probably won't need to change the guest-host relationship very much because you will probably only be the host and Chinese are naturally very good hosts. If western hosts invite you to their house try not to be too surprised if their style of treating you is not what you have expected.

1. Many foreigners think that Chinese hosts are the _____ in the world.
A. best B. worst C. most natural D. most difficult
2. When a western guest visits a Chinese family he often _____.
A. buys some fruit B. feels like a god C. wants some gifts D. takes a cup of tea
3. If the writer's guests want to smoke in his house what will he probably say?
A. It's OK if you smoke here. B. Let's smoke together.
C. Sorry you can't smoke here. D. Smoking is a bad habit.
4. What is the meaning of the underlined phrase "adapt to" in the passage?
A. think back to B. get used to C. look forward to D. keep close to
5. What is the main idea of this passage?

- A. Foreigners should learn from Chinese. B. Hosts must do things in the guest's way.
C. Western hosts are always nice to guests. D. People should understand cultural difference.
